The Week of Compassion February offering each year gives us an opportunity to highlight this part of our shared ministry of disaster response, refugee resettlement and sustainable development ministries. Learn about this ministry by going to www.weekofcompassion.org.

This year as we ask our congregations, members, and friends to give to the offering, funds from Week of Compassion are flowing into our regional church at the same time. In early February, Pendleton experienced significant flooding. Through help from WOC staff, five grants were made totaling $3,250 for families related to the congregation that sustained damage to their homes. This reminded me of other times WOC has been quick to respond to our events such as the forest fires near John Day and the flood in Vernonia a few years before that.

The Week of Compassion responds to disasters domestically and globally through local church organizations on the ground. Because of the annual offering, the WOC is ready to respond quickly. In addition to the emergency work WOC accomplishes, grants are made for sustainable development projects, and resources are made available to assist refugees globally. In the past WOC gave to FEDICE development projects like the ones that our regional church has supported in Ecuador.

In 2019 our regional church gave $82,825 to the offering and this amount in 2020. We hope that we can surpass that amount in 2020.

Women’s Pray & Play Events begin In soon!
"It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches." Matthew 13:32

The poet William Blake wrote about uncommon vision: "To see a World in a Grain of Sand/ And Heaven in a Wild Flower,/ Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand/ And Eternity in an hour."

Likewise, Jesus looked upon the mustard seed with uncommon vision. He compared heaven to the mustard seed, "the smallest of all the seeds." Seen with a longer view, the mustard seed has the power to grow far beyond its size, giving life to the birds of the air that they in turn may come and give life, making nests in its branches.

As the twentieth century came to a close, Disciples of Christ spoke of a 2020 Vision, a focus on mission championed by General Minister and President Dick Hamm. The 2020 vision included congregations open to transformation, our learning to be a pro-reconciling, anti-racist church, 1000 new church starts, and leadership training to accomplish these goals.

Over the past twenty years, we have pursued these goals as Disciples in Oregon and SW Idaho. Many congregations have changed and accepted new forms of missions. We’ve gathered for anti-racism workshops, trained new pastors, supported church planters, even changed the shape of how we see ourselves as a regional church.

Your prayers, your work, your gifts to Disciples Mission Fund and other forms of regional ministry support, have allowed small seeds and uncommon visions to grow and to make nests in many branches. Thanks to you, and thanks to God for all who share this mustard seed faith.

At the 2020 Regional Assembly, we will look at ways that our visions have taken shape and look for pathways that new visions can come into focus.

Save the dates of May 15-16 and plan to come to First Christian Church in Salem for Regional Assembly.

Watch for Future Story Evaluation Survey

The regional Future Story Team will launch a survey in the next few weeks inviting your feedback on the goals and directions of the regional church. At the 2014 Regional Assembly in Hood River, the participants engaged in the launching of a conversation about our regional church future direction with the help of Dick Hamm, our Consultant. Between that time and the 2016 Regional Assembly at Northwood CC, small group conversations were held in our five districts and linked by streaming service between the districts conversations. In 2018 Regional Assembly a progress report was given toward our goals.

In 2016 we launched a set of directions and intentions based on Acts 2:1-4 with three transitions targeted for regional life:

- Moving from living in a shared history to living into a shared future
- Moving from indirect/institutional connections to individual/congregational relationship
- Moving from Regional Staff Co-Ministers style to a Team Ministry style of leadership

Learn more about our work toward these goals by going to the Future Story link on our website. http://www.oidisciples.org/about1-cv5v
